Yvonne Brewer

Neurodiversity

As Country Manager for auticon Ireland, Yvonne leads a global social enterprise dedicated to creating neuroinclusive workplaces where individuals can thrive. She brings thought leadership and subject expertise in neuroinclusion, workplace transformation, and inclusive leadership, working closely with organizations to create environments where diverse talent is valued, supported, and empowered to succeed.

With over 20 years of experience in Consulting, Enterprise Software, and B2B SaaS, Yvonne has helped businesses scale, lead high-performing teams, and deliver multimillion-euro projects and throughout her career, she has seen the positive impact that truly inclusive workplaces can have - not just on business outcomes but on the well-being of individuals within them.

She is passionate about emotional intelligence (EQ), leadership, and fostering environments where people feel they belong. Through a collaborative and empathetic approach, she works with organizations to embed inclusive practices that unlock both business success and personal growth for all employees.
